TTW Travel Coordinator Program:

About the program:

The Tarzan Way is looking for driven individuals to join it as a travel coordinator. During your tenure with us, you'll be learning how a travel company actually works and you'll be working with us to make sure that a group of travelers gets a hassle-free experience.

While affiliated with us, you can recommend our experiences and tailor-travel program to travelers looking for traveling in India. We cater to both Indian and international travelers for fulfilling their unique style of traveling.

About us:

We're a travel-based startup in India, and we've been operating for the past 3 years. We curate locally immersive and culturally relevant experiential travel programs. You can read more about them here.

Apart from that, we create tailor-made experiences for individuals as well as organizations.

To find out more about us visit <https://www.thetarzanway.com/about-us>

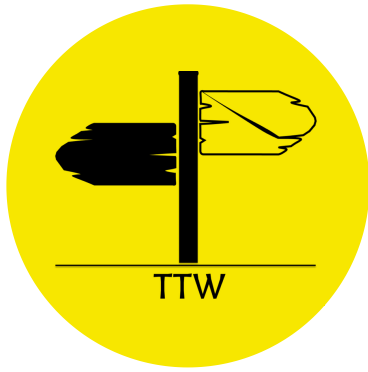

About the responsibility:

1. Make and prepare travel plans-

Prepare personalized travel plans for a group of travelers of a specific organization when they want to travel to a city. These plans have to be unique and offbeat that are specially prepared for TTW.

2. Travel with groups-

If you are good at managing people and handling big groups, you'll travel with a group of travelers whenever there is a group traveling to make sure they have a hassle-free experience. Your job will include

- Making sure that the transportation leaves on time and gets on time as per the itinerary
- Learn the complete itinerary and everything goes on time according to that.
- The accommodation is clean, well-managed, and prepared before the travelers arrive at the place.
- Food and all other promised arrangements like DJ, pool, lawn, etc, are completely prepared for the travelers.
- Day excursions for travelers are on time, places are decided beforehand, and there is no issue in the places to visit.
- Any problems that a traveler might face are resolved as quickly as possible.
- Every traveler is safe and if any medical condition arises then they are taken care of.
- Any other issue that might arise.

3. Researching about new places -

While on travel experiences, you have to give ground reports of new places, activities, restaurants, and any other unique location you find and report them to the operations team. Give a review of how the accommodation you went to was and suggest better alternatives.

4. Create content for the experience -

You'll need to click photos and videos and upload them on TTW's Social Media pages or share them with the Marketing team during the time of experience to share with our followers. After the experience, you can create blogs and stories to add to our website.

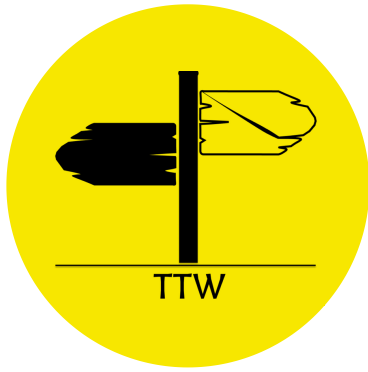

5. Marketing TTW to all the travelers-

You'll need to make every traveler aware of TTW, share merchandise with each one of them, and make sure that each traveler is giving their feedback and writing a review for TTW on how their experience went with us. Organising challenges and contests to increase reach of TTW's social accounts.

What do you get?

1. Monetary Incentive-

Each coordinator gets a monetary incentive ranging from INR 2000/- to INR 20,000/- depending on experience and type of group and duration

2. Free trip-

The coordinator goes along with the group with all expenses of the trip paid. The coordinator will also get a daily allowance to spend on meals.

3. Sharing content-

If you're looking to increase your online presence, TTW will recommend its followers your profile, share your content on our website and other Social networking platforms.

4. Be a part of our community-

We will be creating a group of fellow travelers/bloggers/influencers to discuss travel-related questions and answer travel-related questions of our audiences as well. You'll get free promotions and a chance to collaborate with other bloggers/influencers.

Why Us?

We are a team of motivated young individuals working towards changing the way people see travel. Our aim to simplify travel is to provide each and every individual who has a will to travel, with a travel experience of their choice irrespective of age, gender, financial conditions, or disabilities.

Our experiential travel programs are not only unique but help local communities in the remotest areas to generate employment and showcase their culture all around the world.

Our soon to launch AI-software will make planning a travel experience a hassle-free job and create a transparent platform which no other travel company can provide.
